Annual Dwight Dorey Youth Advocacy Award

"Guiding with influence – establishing with purpose"

Recognizing youth for their achievements is a great way to build self-esteem; and more importantly, it establishes role models so others can see that their goals are tangible.

Understanding how important this is for our youth, the Congress of Aboriginal Peoples' National Youth Council (NYC) established this unique awards program to honour and show appreciation to both achievements and advocacy.

"We feel that Aboriginal youth in Canada are realizing goals and deserve to be recognized for both their efforts and achievements. We want youth to know that the journey is as important as the destination. For that reason this award is also based on effort and not entirely on accomplishments." - NYC Member

Award Criteria – Youth Award

Any person in Canada be nominated for an award, so long as they:
